

 Outcrop area of the Upper aquifer of the Potomac-Raritan-Magothy aquifer system  Outcrop area of the Middle aquifer of the Potomac-Raritan-Magothy aquifer system  Outcrop area of the Lower aquifer of the Potomac-Raritan-Magothy aquifer system  Puckack well field	EXPLANATION  Road  Railroad  WELL NAME— Well screened in the Upper aquifer of the Potomac-Raritan-Magothy aquifer system  WELL NAME— Well screened in the Middle aquifer of the Potomac-Raritan-Magothy aquifer system  WELL NAME— Well screened in the Lower aquifer of the Potomac-Raritan-Magothy aquifer system	 New monitoring well installed 2000–01  Existing well  Selected production well Abbreviations for selected local identifiers: CC Camden City M Morris P Puckack PSLF Pennsauken Landfill	0 1 2 3 MILES 0 1 2 3 KILOMETERS
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------

Monitoring and production wells in the Potomac-Raritan-Magothy aquifer system, Pennsylvania Township and vicinity, Camden and Burlington Counties, New Jersey, 1999–2001

By
Julia L. Barringer, Richard L. Walker, Eric Jacobsen, and Pamela Jankowski
2011