

- EXPLANATION
- Intermittent stream
 - Wash (Water course that is usually dry)
 - Nonflowing well
 - Abandoned well or dry hole
 - Spring
 - Natural reservoir or tank
 - Cistern or other artificial reservoir
 - Pumping plant
 - Road
 - Secondary road
 - Signpost erected by U. S. Geological Survey
 - Mine

RELIEF MAP OF THE CENTRAL PART OF THE LOWER GILA REGION, ARIZONA
SHOWING DESERT WATERING PLACES

Compiled from plane-table sheets by Clyde P. Ross, U. S. Geological Survey topographic maps, irrigation survey maps, township plats of the General Land Office, and other sources. Relief shading by John H. Renshaw

Watering-place survey by Clyde P. Ross Area south of Gila River by Kirk Bryan Surveyed in 1917

Scale 250,000
0 5 10 15 Miles

Datum is mean sea level
1922