

- EXPLANATION
- Intermittent stream
 - Wash (Water course that is usually dry)
 - Nonflowing well
 - Abandoned well or dry hole
 - Spring
 - Natural reservoir or tank
 - Cistern or other artificial reservoir
 - Pumping plant or windmill
 - Irrigation canal, ditch, or pipe line
 - Resero
 - Temporal
 - Road
 - Secondary road
 - Trail
 - Signpost erected by U. S. Geological Survey
 - Boundary monument
 - Bench mark
 - Mine

RELIEF MAP OF THE CENTRAL PART OF THE PAPAGO COUNTRY, ARIZONA
 SHOWING DESERT WATERING PLACES

Scale 250,000

Datum to mean sea level
 1922

Compiled from plane-table sheets by Kirk Bryan, U. S. Geological Survey topographic maps, U. S. Indian Service maps, maps of the International Boundary Commission, maps of the Forest Service, township plats of the General Land Office, and other sources
 Relief shading by John H. Renshave

Watering-place survey by Kirk Bryan
 Area north of Gila River by Clyde P. Ross
 Surveyed in 1917