

EXPLANATION

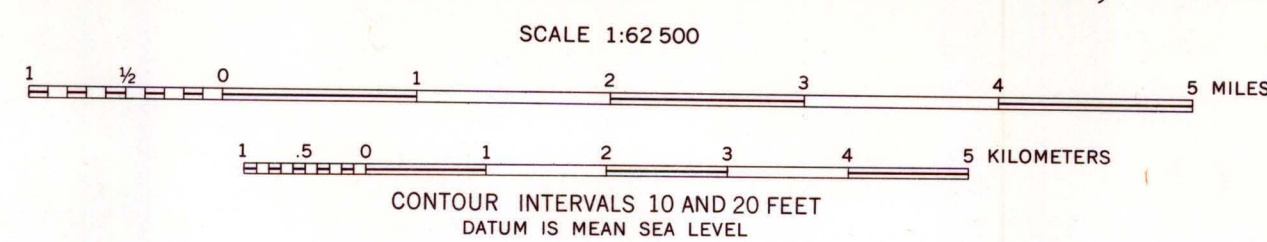

- 969.50 Bear Creek near Fulton (10.3)
Average 12
Median 9.1
Low 2.0
- 969.50: Station number
(10.3): Drainage area, in square miles
Average: Long-term average of daily discharge in cubic feet per second
Median: The discharge in cubic feet per second equaled or exceeded 50 percent of the time
Low: Average 7-day low flow in cubic feet per second at 2-year recurrence interval
(See tables 9 and 10 for flow data)
- 1056.85
Miscellaneous site
Number indicates station number
- Partial-record station
- Gaging station

Sites outside county. Flow data shown in table 10. Part of Fort Custer Military Reservation. Streams drain to the east.

MAP SHOWING STREAMFLOW IN KALAMAZOO COUNTY, SOUTHWESTERN MICHIGAN

Base from U.S. Geological Survey
Kalamazoo, 1916; Galesburg, Leonidas, and Schoolcraft, 1950
Roads as of 1969

INTERIOR—GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, WASHINGTON, D.C.—1971—W6428